

The UCSB MultiCultural Center Presents

An Evening of

Flamenco with

Carmen de Torres

Friday, October 13, 8 PM, 2006

Dance Performance

MultiCultural Center Theater

Student: $5 / General Admission: $15
Associated Students

Ticket Office, (805) 893-2064

Tickets can be purchased over the phone
(at no extra charge) or at the ticket office.

A professional dancer for more than 20 years, Carmen de Torres is often considered one of the world's most accomplished flamenco dancers. Her powerful presence mesmerizes all within reach as she channels the diverse emotions at the heart of flamenco. De Torres has performed in Canada, Sweden, Finland, Italy and the United States. She will be accompanied by her talented daughter Carmelita, Timo Nuñez and Ryan Zermeño in dance, Robert Boyd on lead guitar, Benjamin Woods on guitar, and Antonio de Jerez on vocals.

Co-sponsored by the Spanish and Portuguese Department.

Co-sponsored by the Interdisciplinary
Humanities Center

For more information or assistance in accommodating people of varying abilities, contact the MultiCultural Center at (805) 893-8411